I also have a picture of five Romine brothers taken around 1824 if you would like for me to have you a copy of that made. I think it runs around $5.00 for a copy. I even have the names of the ones in the picture and the date of their births. Hope this helps you, Linda Sent to me from Jo Anne Romine (Arthur F. Romine) from Beeville, Texas The letter to her was from Ralph E. Romine from Kirkwood, MO There was a notation at the bottom the letter that Arthur Romine in Veterans Hospital in Texas (the letter from Ralph Romine was dated 1993) Benjamin Franklin Romine's father was Berry Turner Romine Grandfather Thomas Price Romine Great Grandfather Andrew Romine G-G-Grandfather John Romine ANDREW ROMINE Our first ancestor to come to Missouri The first record of him was found in the history of Kentucky. On August 19, 1800 he went with his father John Romine to register for the tax list, in Lexington, the county seat of Fayette. His fathers name had appeared on the list several years prior to 1800. Do to the fact that was Andrew's first time to register it indicates he had turned 21 years of age that year. His first marriage was to Lucienda Price. They had two children, they were Lucinda and Thomas Price (Berry T. Romine's father). Their (Mother) Lucienda is buried in the Long Riddle Cemetery near Shelbyville, Kentucky. Andrew's second wife's name was Sarah (last name unknown). They had two children Docia and Peter. The family migrated to Missouri. Soon after the war of 1812. At that time the United States Government appropriated two million acres for homesteading between the St. Francois and Arkansas rivers, apparently they came to Missouri to homestead. They settled in Washington County, which is located in the homestead area. In the Washington County Records his Will was found, following is a copy. Romine, Andrew, nuncupative (oral) Will, 27th February 1819. *John Horine and Elizabeth Zeneau were called to witness the Will of the deceased in his last sickness, at his habitation in Washington County where he resided ten days previous to his death.
