Barbara,

I had written to a lady with the Richland County Genealogical Society asking her to see if she could find any record of the death of John Romine in Olney or Richland county, most likely between 1845-1849. I received a letter from her today. She did not find anything on John, but she found a marriage record for Lavina (this is probably our Lavina, who was born in 1844 in Wayne Co.) Romine to Edward Benton on October 25, 1860. She stated that in the 1860 Census records for Richland county there was only one Romine listed. It was "A. Romins" age 29 b-IN wife was Sarah age 20 b-IL. She went on to say that by 1870 no Romine's at all were listed for Richland county. She suggested that we look in Clay County, because it was established twenty years before Richland county was and that Richland county was established from part of Clay county.

So guess I'll head for Clay County now.

Linda

P.S. Did you know anything about Lavina? I did not other than the year and county she was born in.
