Hi all,

Toward the end of the year, I received a letter from a George Maddox from Jacksonville, FL.

He is researching the Romine Line here are some excerts from the letter:

"The information I have on the Romines is very limited. My great great grandfather (I think) was Matthew Maddox, Jr. He was born in 1783 in St. Mary's County, Maryland. He married Mary Romine (Romaine?) Septembr 3, 1807 in Harrison County, Virginia (West Virginia). Mary's father was Samuel Romine.

I say I think Matthew Jr. and Mary were my g-g-grandparents because I've never been able to prove they were the parents of my great grandfather Matthew R. Maddox born in 1818 in Harrison County--but I feel I'm right.

For what it is worth, there were a number of Romines in the Harrison Co. (Clarksburg) and Wood County (Parkersburg) areas of what is now West Virginia. The 1860 cenuss lists Ville Romine, age 19 and Lloyd Romine, age 16, An index to Harrison Co. marriages list 43 Romines. A list of the Wood Co. Cemetery inscriptions list 10 Romines. " End of quote from his letter.

Thought some of you might tie in with his Maddox side and be able to help him. If any of you would like to write him, his address is:

George W. Maddox
5304 Golf Course Dr.
Jacksonville, FL. 32277

He also listed his phone number if anyone is intered in that.

Thanks,
Linda
