Can anyone help me with this?

Shirley posted a message about a Catalog of Scholars one of which was an OB Romine who was admitted 10 Jul 1796 and his father was Casper.

In H.S. Ackerman's book about the Romine Family Page 27 there is an Obadiah Romine(no birth date given) but in the right time frame based on his brothers and sisters. His father is listed as Caslaris (Chart as Charles). The Catalog of Scholars shows Ob Romine's father as Casper.

The USGENWEB English to Dutch given name cross reference lists Casper and then Caspar, Casparus. For the name Charles it shows Carl/Karl/Corel/Cheerelz/Karel and Karelkje.

My questions is: Could Ackerman have made a mistake here and Caslaris might be another name for Casper? Wishful thinking on my part I guess- Trying to help Shirley. I have found no other Obadiahs in my research in that time period.

Anybody have any comments on this.
