Hi all,

I'm doing some more clean up and logging of email today and I was working with note from Tom and I have some different stuff on my computer so I thought that I would write and double check.

Tom Riley wrote:

 Somewhere I read that "on the Bay" referred to Jamaca Bay, for what its worth.

 What I have is that Stintie did die young but it was prior to 1723 and thus another daughter was given the same name on 14 April 1723. See number 11 below. The "Steintje" or what ever who married David Berden/Barden is the daughter of Daniel Romeyn and his wife, Maritie Jurianse Westervelt.

 I am currently showing that Urseltje was the daughter of Albert C. The dates that I have and the husband are the same.

 I don't have this guy at all. I do have a Theodore F. who is the son of Thomas Romeyn and Susanna Van Campen. This would make Theodore a grandson of number 2 above but I show no dates nor a name of a wife on my computer so am not sure if it is the same fellow or not.

Hackensack.

I am currently showing the guy with a third wife...Hannah Austin by whom he had one son, Benjamin.

on Sept.

So, Tom, or anyone else, I need to know the source of the info that you have that would change the info that I have so I can get things straightened out. Thanks.

Renee
