Hi Adrian,

You mentioned Arnold Card in one of your e's. I knew that I had heard the name, so I asked my mother when I visited her today. She has a hard time remembering recent things, but when I started going over the Cards on the list you sent, she came up with all kinds of Card stories that I had never heard before.

It seems that Arnold's mother, Aunt Ella, was especially nice to my mother when she was a young girl. Ella made a dress for her that I could tell was still a special dress even 75 years later. To a small girl being raised by her grandmother during hard times, it was a special act of kindness.

She remembered Uncle George, and said Arnold Sr., had a son, Arnold, Jr. (Did she get that right?) She also thought that Arnold Sr.'s wife, Betty Cox, had been in a women's group at the Bloomingdale Methodist Church with her. She remembered Anna Eliz. Romain (Davidison) visiting her grandmother, Hattie Card.

She also remembered that Stephen Card and Aunt Kate raised Kate's niece, Sadie Peer and that Israel Card and Aunt Lena didn't have any children either, but they raised my mother's good friend, Wilma Huber. She was also close to the children of Aunt Gus and Ed Reardon: Harry, Lester, Clarence, Doris, Unice, and John.

I never knew that her father, Norman Card had another family in Penn., six kids, two being twins. I knew about my mother's half sisters, Anne and Ada, but that means Norman Card fathered two sets of twins.

I would love to have copies of the pictures you mentioned. When you get the package I sent you, let me know which ones of the photocopies you would like a regular photo of. By the way, all of the people in each generation that I am sending you now will be in the Romain History that is in the package.

Next generation:

Lambert Romain's great, great grandfather was Jan Janse Romeyn, AKA John Jansen Romeyn. He was Bapt. on Aug. 8, 1703 and died Sept. 10, 1785. His wife was Catrina "Catherine" Outwater. They
