

Home Inbox Compose Address Book Options Help

Calendar

rominejc@hotmail.com

Save Address\(es\) Block

Previous Next | Close

From : "Mandy Buchanan" <mysticmandy_gingerwitch@hotmail.com>

To : "James Romine" <rominejc@hotmail.com>

Subject : Re: Unidentified subject!

Date : Mon, 8 Oct 2001 15:27:43 +0100

Reply Reply All Forward Delete

Printer Friendly Version

Dont Know if this will help but I am tracing Scottish and English Romaines and there is a romaine married to a Margaret Berrie (and variant spellings) - you should find it on the IGI - maybe a connection there somewhere?

Regards Mandy Buchanan

----- Original Message -----

From: James Romine <rominejc@hotmail.com>

To: <ROMINE-L@rootsweb.com>

Sent: Sunday, October 07, 2001 10:29 PM

Subject: Unidentified subject!

> I am seeking help in making a potential family tie between the > ROMINE-BERRY-TURNER lines.

>

> I am tracing my line of ROMINE back through Berry Turner Romine (b. 1828 > [Missouri], d. 1896 [Phelps Co. Missouri]). This line extends back from > Berry Turner Romine as follows:

>

> 1 John Romine (?,?)

>2 Andrew Romine (1779-1819)

> + Lucindea Price (1774- [buried in Shelby Co. KY])

>3 Thomas Price Romine (1803-1889)

> + Phoebe Ellen Baker (? - ?)

>4 Berry Turner Romine (1828-1896)

>

> John and Andrew Romine lived in Kentucky in the late 1700's to early 1800's.

> John and Andrew registered for the Tax List in Lexington, Fayette County,

> Kentucky on August 19, 1800. Interestingly, James Berry, William Berry, > Benjamin Turner and George Turner also registered for the Tax List on the > same day in Lexington.

>

> From these tax records, it seems reasonable that the ROMINE, BERRY and > TURNER families may have known one another. Coupling this with Berry
Turner

> Romine's unusual name (the spelling of Berry suggests a surname origin), > leads me to wonder if the families were somehow related.

>

> I would be grateful to hear from anyone having information that might link
> ROMINE with either the BERRY or TURNER families living in Kentucky around > the late 1700's and early 1800's.

>

> Regards,

>

> Jim Romine

>

>

> Get your FREE download of MSN Explorer at <http://explorer.msn.com/intl.asp>

>

Reply Reply All Forward Delete

Previous Next | Close

Hotmail Services

Free Newsletters

Special Offers

Pop Mail

Find Message

Reminders

Directories

Explore MSN

Air Tickets

Chat Rooms

Find Friends

Free Games

Hear Music

My Photos

Personals

Send Money

Stock Quotes

More...