Hi,

We've just subscribed to the list....our line is as follows, starting with my mother-in-law:

Emogene Romine
B. 1928 in Kiowa Co, OK
M. Donald B Bailey in AZ in 1943

Her father is Emmett Romine
B. 22 Feb 1898 in LeFlore Co MS
M. Bessie LeMaster in OK in 1916
D. 22 Feb 1979 in Kern Co, CA

His father is Thomas G Romine
B. abt 1867 in AL (est date and place of birth taken from a census)
M. Georgia Ellen Burden in 1890 in LeFlore co, MS
D. around 1928-1930 (from my mom-in-laws memory of her father telling her that Thomas died about the time she was born or shortly thereafter)

This is as far as we have. Apparently, Thomas left Georgia when Emmett was only a small child, therefore Emmett would never talk about him much. Emogene says that every time she asked about her "other grandpa", her dad would get upset and not tell her anything. Consequently, we seem to be at a dead end here. We can't find a birth record in AL for Thomas. Any information regarding Romines in AL from 1850-1900 would be most helpful.

I'm collecting anything I find on Romines in the Southern US, I'd be happy to share what I find with anyone who can find it useful.

Thanks
Michelle
