

Received: from mtigwc04.worldnet.att.net (mtigwc04.worldnet.att.net [204.127.131.33]) by gator1.brazosport.cc.tx.us (8.7.5/8.7.3) with ESMTP id AAA05525 for ; Tue, 31 Mar 1998 00:57:13 -0600 (CST) Received: from [12.64.35.29] ([12.64.67.120]) by mtigwc04.worldnet.att.net (post.office MTA v2.0 0613 ) with SMTP id AAA4059 for ; Tue, 31 Mar 1998 06:52:07 +0000 Message-ID: <3520065D.6673@worldnet.att.net> Date: Mon, 30 Mar 1998 20:53:49 +0000 From: Nita Ragone Organization: JM Incorporated X-Mailer: Mozilla 2.02E (Macintosh; I; PPC) MIME-Version: 1.0 To: llamb@gator1.brazosport.cc.tx.us Subject: Re: Romine surname References: <352049A1.FD99312B@gator1.brazosport.cc.tx.us> Content-Type: text/plain; charset=us-ascii Content-Transfer-Encoding: 7bit Hi Larry and Linda, I've visited your Web page before and wondered if there was a connection, but haven't had a chance to ask. My gg grandfather was James Romine from KY, he was born ca. 1800 and moved to Kanawha Co., WV in the 1820's not sure of the exact year, he married Mary Perry in 1828. I had another e-mail from Lisa Romine who said her ancestor Quimby Romine b. 1812 was also from KY, (Shelby Co.), he married Barbara Ellis. She said that Quimby and James might be brothers and that their fathers name was William (b. ca. 1790) who married Susanna Jeffrie(s) in 1809, William moved to Vigo Co., Illinois. Quimby Romine ended up in Terra Haute, IN. I don't know if there is any connection between the three lines. I do know that James named his first son John. Good Luck on your search and I'll keep you informed if I find anything new. Lisa's e-mail is lromine@axiom.com Nita