Karen,
I saw your post in the Romine list. I have one relative named Romine and decided to subscribe to this list and see if anything turned up.
I had a "aunt" by the name of Betty Elliott Romine who lived in Santa Monica California for during the 1960's. I called her aunt, since in the south you address anyone older than you as 'aunt'. She was actually not a relation--she was the sister of my grandmother's sister-in-law. In other words, Betty Elliott's sister, Sue Elliott married Auber Settle, who was the brother of my grandmother, Mollie Settle Adams.
I remember visiting this 'aunt' Betty in 1962 with my mother, Maye Adams. I had no idea who she was to me then. I was only 13 and you didn't ask too many questions in my family. It took me many years to figure this relationship out. My grandmother and mother have passed away and there is no one to ask about her. But I have always been intrigues by her married surname, Romine. What about this database you mentioned--where is it and how can I search it?
Thanks,
Pat Lowe
