List Members:

Does anyone know where a copy of the Herbert S. Ackerman book , published circa 1953(?), covering the early Romine, Romeyn, Romijn, etc of New Amsterdam, NY, & NJ can be located and acquired, purchased, long-term borrowed, or reproduced (if that's legal)? (Apparently books published before 1964 can be reproduced legally). Perhaps someone with a copy would reproduce copies for a reasonable fee for interested List members.

I've tried to locate an available copy or a reprint -- even visited Higginson Book Company in Salem, MA -- they are systematically reprinting genealogical materials published pre-1964.-- now some 9000 titles, but they haven't "processed" Ackerman's yet. Their web page is <www.higginsonbooks.com> -- perhaps most of you are already familiar with them. Higginson, and I'm certain there are others, will reprint out-of-print books, if they thought there was a market for them. These can get into the "over a hundred dollar" range quickly Wonder if we have enough potential customers to get someone to reprint it...

Can someone/anyone on the List provide some insight?

Thanks

Reed Romine
